William Barclay (1907-1978) is known and loved by millions worldwide as one of the greatest Christian teachers of modern times. His insights into the New Testament, combined with his vibrant writing style, have delighted and enlightened readers of all ages for over half a century. He served for most of his life as Professor of Divinity at the University of Glasgow, and wrote more than fifty books--most of which are still in print today. His most popular work, the Daily Study Bible, has been translated into over a dozen languages and has sold more than ten million copies around the world.

Actually better than I had hoped. Barclay is in tune with the word and has a very humanitarian and thought out, really interesting and relevant, commentary. When I am finished with this study, I am going to order another one. I consider it part of my daily devotion. I heard it referenced on a catholic radio station and I found that interesting because Dr. Barclay is not catholic. Better, he is an open minded scholar who teaches knowledge of the word. Even I can understand it and enjoy it. I look forward to reading his commentary. I am very thankful that I happened to turn on the radio to that station and hear that priest reference this book. (God works like that all the time...[he gives you just what you need]).

An excellent resource for a layman's study of Paul's writings.

Not my favorite Barclay. He lost me when he came out against the doctrine of the Triune God.

Dr. Barclay was truly a gift from God for the everyday layman who desires to know the meaning of the Bible, and in this case the Book of Romans. St. Paul's theology is not the easiest to understand without a lot of study, but Dr. Barclay brings it home in an everyday understanding. I recommend his books for individual and group study in and out of the church environment.

WOW ! I have a small men's Bible study with this book, every Thursday Morning. We are enjoying the intense and detailed commentary of Paul's approach to the Roman Church with great knowledge of the living conditions they faced in light of the new Light they had received. We are discovering that their living conditions are not too different than ours - in many respects! It has been a real eye opener for us all! A great amplified version of the "ROMAN ROAD" tract which we first shared! Thank you for making this possible ($)!

The commentaries in the Daily Study Bible Series are great! They explain the historical context of the Scripture which is very important in understanding the true meaning behind the text. I am a youth pastor and I use these commentaries on a weekly basis. The language they are written in is easy to understand and read. Great set of commentaries for teaching, preaching, or just going deeper into the Bible.

Barclay is one of my favorite authors and provides insights that no other writer thinks about.
