Cork & Kenmare, IRELAND

Synopsis

From endearing villages, verdant green hills, falls and sheen falls, to the shopping deja vous in towns so alive in colors (Cobh, Cork, Kenmare, Bonane), you will indulge a relaxing tour of the two counties of southwestern Ireland: Cork and Kerry. Drive with a stick-shift or ride on a dutch bicycle along the Rings of Kerry and Beara; try the home-baked scones and puddings; be brave to drink an ounce of Irish poitin, then kiss the Blarney Stone in a formidable castle, so you will never be lost for words you would need to describe the Irish countryside. Join your tourmates in rosettes in a mesmerizing tour of a blessed and restorative land - rich in emotional landscapes and unblemished heritage. Welcome to Ireland!
