Customer Reviews

This book is WORTHLESS as a travel guide! It's so infuriating that it's masquerading as a real travel guide. All the positive reviews must be FAKE. They in no way accurately describe the "book". Trust the one other 1-star review. It really is just a booklet listing 101 things, each with a brief description. You could do much better just looking at the first review of the top 101 things on TripAdvisor. Unlike a real travel guide, there are no maps, travel tips, hotels, restaurants. It's literally just a list of 101 things. Save your money, time, and sanity, and AVOID. This publisher should be ashamed of themselves for this waste of paper and space and perpetuating this HOAX (I see they have "guides" for other countries as well). - get rid of these idiots. I'm getting my money back.

When it's a hot day and you cool yourself down with a refreshing glass of bubble tea, have you ever wondered where this wondrous creation started? Well, it's actually something Taiwanese, and you can go straight to the source in Taipei by visiting Chun Shui Tang, the very place that invented the drink. For us, the bubble tea there is perfect. It's sweet but not overly so, it has a strong tea flavour, and the tapioca balls are the perfect balance between soft and chewy.

Great guide book to Taiwan. The book goes into detail about the main attractions in each region of the island and offers a generous background on the history of Taiwan. I compared this to another top-rated travel guide on Taiwan, which I also purchased, and this one beats it hands down. It has a lot of information provided for you to read on. It is also a very organized book to read.

This book provides good travel info for tourists to Taiwan with a relatively inexpensive price. The suggestions / choices are fairly good for visitors. Most of them can be found directly on Google map, although a couple of them seemed to have a different translation. A map with more detailed description would be helpful, but it will cost more, likely lots more.

Love this travel guide. I have been to Taiwan 4 times already and can't ever go without this book! Bought this book just prior to taking a full tour of the island followed by a 3 week stay in Taichung. The book was very helpful and seems to be quite up to date. I highly recommend it, especially for English speaking folks like me.

This book is really great guide for taiwan-Taiwan is a country that has it all. The epic cities provide dynamic cultural opportunities, but there's also plenty of space for incredible landscapes. I like this book and I have used it in Taiwan and it was extremely helpful Lots of useful tips. wonderful Taiwan

Like reading travel guides right before a trip. This guide is not an exception. I have read this guide and found out plenty of interesting and unknown facts about Taiwan. There are really so many coolest things to do in Taiwan and I hope to try as much as I can. I can't wait my trip to Taiwan.

This is a great guide with lots of detail about Taipei. This book is to use as a reference source during travels. Good coverage of lots of info that you need for travel in Taipei. A must if you are planning on visiting Taipei. Buy one of this helpful Guide.
