At The Old Haunted House

Synopsis

At the old haunted houseIn a room with no sunLived a warty green witchAnd her wee witchy one. There are all kinds of creatures in the house: a big Ma monster and her wee monsters two, a scrawny black cat and her wee kittens three, a green Pa goblin and his wee goblins four, and more! Count along as the creatures prepare for the Halloween Fright. The text, written in the pattern of the popular poem “Over in the Meadow,” makes reading aloud fun, while the cinematic illustrations set the scene for an unforgettable romp through the old haunted house. Trick or treat!

Customer Reviews

My 4 year old loves this book. He likes all the Halloween characters and the counting is great for him.

What's good about it is good people live in the good Wolfe house. What's bad about it is if spiders ghosts and mummies and Wolfies come in the house and scare us. Monsters were also scary. This review was written by Harrison. Three years old.

Kids love this book; stumbled upon at the library

This is a perfectly nice Halloween story about a party given by ghoulish characters...it has a perfectly decent rhyme to go with it, but really my 3 year old likes seeing fun pictures of monsters. The monsters are not threatening or scary...at least to us. The illustrations are nice - I like the panoramic shots of the neighborhood and the house. Very nice.

We love this book, and read it all year long. Super fun bedtime story that's easy to read, but has enough rhyme to keep it interesting and entertaining for young readers.

Cute book. My son picked it out at the book fair. He loves it. Beautiful illustration.

I am singing this book to the music of "Three Little Fishes" and have changed the chorus to " Boop Boop Dit-tem what-tem bot-tem BOO!" which I do every 2 verses and have the kids join in on the chorus. The Kindergartners are very enthusiastic on the Boo!

My 3 year old and I enjoyed this book! Every page we counted the monsters and made the sound effects!
