Amish Days: Replacement Wife: Hollybrook Amish Romance (Greta's Story Book 1)

Synopsis

ALWAYS FREE! on Kindle Unlimited and only 99 cents to own! Isaac Wagner gapes at his dying wife. Is she serious? Is she really trying to force him to make such a promise? How can she possibly expect him to marry Greta Glick after she dies? How can anyone replace Betty as his wife? How can anyone replace her as the mother to their son? Isaac can't even begin to think such thoughts. All he wants is for his wife to live. But Isaac's prayers aren't answered. Betty dies with Isaac and their baby son by her side. After the burial, Greta Glick assures Isaac that she will not hold him to the promise, even though she already loves his son. She suspects she might love Isaac, too, but she shoves her feelings aside. Later, when the local healer's granddaughter begins to show interest in Isaac, Greta regrets how hastily she brushed the promise aside. Was she wrong to dismiss Betty's dying wish so quickly? And now, Isaac is threatening to leave the state, and it appears that both Isaac and his baby son will be lost to her forever.

Customer Reviews

What would you do if your spouse was dying and made you promise to marry the person they had picked out for you? That is what happens in this story. Not only did his wife make him promise to marry Greta, but she made Greta promise to marry Isaac. The question is: Will Isaac marry Greta? Right now he is lost, can't think straight and his mother has convinced him to come home with her for while. She can take care of the baby and he can recover. Of course, mother is hoping that getting him back home he will decide to stay permanently. Abigail was in love with Joshua, but he betrayed her trust, so she left to live with her Grammy and learn to be a healer and midwife. It has been a few months and now Joshua has arrived to apologize and ask if they can start over. Abigail still loves him, but isn't sure it would work, but she finally agrees to a new and slow courtship. Two different types of romance, with more to come. Good story and a quick read.

If only life was what we want it to be, all our dreams would come true. Sometimes we think we have it all figured out but then we are thrown a curve ball. Our hearts are such independent thinkers. We find it hard to accept when it doesn't turn out like we want it to do. We need to remember the first rule; "THY WILL BE DONE, LORD". This book is more suited to 18 and above!

It was a don't put down book for me! I enjoyed reading it from the start and couldn't put it down until I read the whole book instead of going to bed like I should have.

A winner, pain, loss and love. Friends, good friends, like Greta can make life a little better when life is challenged, especially in death.

I enjoyed this book, but I wish it had been all one book, the stories seem not ending or ending but left hanging sort of.

I really enjoyed this book. It was left open ended. I would have given it 5 stars had it not been.

very well written. love the progression of the story. keeps you wondering.

It was a clean book. well written and believable.
