Got the book on time and as described.

Hello, Just wanted to let you know that I gave this book as a christmas gift to my Grandmother who by the way is 97. She worked at the Detroit Institute of Arts in the I believe Archives and traveled alot to Washington DC Smithsonian as part of her job. She now lives upnorth in northern Michigan in a nursing home, but misses Detroit and the Art Institute very much and talks about her days there alot. When she recieved the book she was delighted. After a week or so I asked her if she liked the book. "Oh Yes! I remember seeing many of these works of art and I am enjoying reading about them" "I had always wondered about some of the artists". "It is facinating reading about the paintings too". Although the printing is small she was still able to read it. I was glad to have given her part of her life back thru this book. She has shown it to other Art Lovers and they have enjoyed looking at it also.

This volume with its companion are a joy to behold and invaluable It is so wonderful to have these great works of American Art available to us and all together. I have been so moved by the great works created by American artists and have been collecting volume after volume of these paintings. This is among the finest. Quality of the reproductions are excellent.
