Customer Reviews

K-Gr 2 Told entirely in pirate lingo, this story follows a boy and his entourage of ethereal salty dogs through the first day of school. "Me great scurvy dog slurped me kisser when I was tryin' t' get me winks!" The protagonist's fruitful imagination turns ordinary routine into a high-seas adventure complete with a small, skirted buccaneer walking the plank during recess. In the end, where does X mark the spot? Treasure abounds in the library, with the chance to experience the adventure of the written word. The illustrations have a vintage feel, complete with boisterous grog-drinking, scabbard-waving, and bubble-pipe-smoking pirates. The combination of the muted tones of the pirates with the bold colors of the real world adds to the visual appeal. Despite the glossary, the text may prove a little challenging for the intended audience. However, it can serve as a tremendous read-aloud, especially on Talk Like a Pirate Day. Jasmine L. Throughout his first day of first grade, a young boy describes his everyday actions in briny pirate terms, from breakfasting on grub in the galley to meeting Cap'ñ Silver (his new teacher) and walking the plank (seesaw) at recess. Each sharply rendered, full-color scene shows a crew of imagined pirates, differentiated in gray-toned drawings, who follow the boy and provide friendly company throughout the day. Young would-be buccaneers facing their own first-day jitters will enjoy this droll title, which ends with a cheer for libraries. A great choice for sharing on September 19, International Talk Like a Pirate Day. Preschool-Grade 1. --Gillian Engberg --This text refers to the Library Binding edition.

Good quality product received promptlyThanks

It was cute, not great

Cute book, great illustrations, shipped fast. We love reading all the pirate jargon in our piratey voices, matey.

Bought this for my granddaughter who was starting first grade this year. Very cute, she really enjoyed it.

this year focus in school is teach like a pirate...fits right in. quality of use book like new.

Boys loved the story, would recommend. Easy reader for kids age appropriate. Recommend for young boy readers, it's outside the super hero ninja box :-)

Another excellent book that was recommended from the Montgomery County School for kids to read themselves and/or read it together with parent(s).

Fun for the class!
