Customer Reviews

This test prep book was jointly created by the editorial staff of IES Publications, a company based primarily in Metuchen, NJ. The company is headed by Khalid Khashoggi and Arianna Astuni, who together have spent the past 15 years leading students to massive score increases, perfect SAT and ACT scores, and acceptances to the highest-ranked American and international universities.

This is a great book for extra reading practice. The author gives good advice, and the passages & questions are on a par with the difficulty level of the real test.

There are a few challenging passages in here, but the passages are definitely too easy in comparison to the real test. However, if you are looking for a book to help you get your feet wet, this could work (but it would not be enough).

Too easy.

challenging, but not in an unnecessary manner like many other practice test books.

When preparing for the SAT, the student will often become overwhelmed with the massive amount of information to review. This book breaks the information down to easy reading and allows for the student to find stopping points for breaks. It is informative and helpful. We are hoping it will help with the SAT scheduled for my daughter in June.

Works for my kids

Good
