We got the Nutshell books (which the musical is based on) as a gift; my parents also have the record (yes, record) of this show and our daughter loved listening to the songs. We started listening to them on YouTube and she kept loving them, so we got this so I could play them on the piano. If that's what you want to do, this book is useful. Depending on your skill level, the songs might be too simplistic or just right - be aware that the real songs have introductory portions, and those aren't in this music, nor are other embellishments, so it sounds simpler than what's on the recordings you might listen to. But that also makes it easier to play. I'd have liked the harder version personally.

I read Really Rosie and played the songs for my elementary student for many years and never got tired listening to them over and over. I'm now going to let my grandchildren enjoy them.

My daughter is enjoying sharing the Really Rosie adventure with her daughter and I love watching them both! Granddaughter is 7

This is the music and lyrics book to stage the play. We did this in our living room, very nostalgic!

The book was in excellent shape, the price was extraordinary. I was disappointed though in that it did not have all the songs, and omitted some I particularly wanted like "The Awful Truth". Also the music was dummed down some from what you hear on the soundtrack.

One of my kids' favorite books - music, too! - and destined to become a favorite of their children and grandchildren as well. Sendak's verse and King's music are a wonderful combination. We're ordering the DVD so the kids can sing along with the music and see the stories in cartoon form.

One of my Favorite memories of growing up in Jersey and NY is this book and movie!!!Fast, safe shipping met all expectations for the product. love this product sharing with friends for gifts, thank you kindly..

This was a favorite of mine as a child. Loved the Carole King/Neil Sedaka soundtrack to the TV special. I remember the lyrics to this day and sing them to my sons. So original and fun!
