Customer Reviews

This is not active content, but it's a genuine two-person game that can be played without being online. It's set up so that any game can be played just by clicking, and the players will be directed to the correct board. Basically, it's a little difficult to explain except to say that it works. TicTacToe is hardly the most enthralling game, but for playing with a youngster this is perfect and very clever.

i tried a sample and it worked just fine for my kindle. i like it really well. it works really well. i played with my little sister and we now really enjoy playing it.

It is a great game i LOVE it.the cat is a little scary on kindle but other then that i LOVE
