A Short & Happy Guide To Business Organizations (Short & Happy Guides)

Synopsis

“Short and Happy”? This book is indeed “short” - much shorter than any other student guide. The reason is that other student guides are written to help you understand your business associations/organizations course, to get you through 42 or 56 class hours. This student guide is different. It is written to help you understand your professor’s final exam questions to get you through a 3 or 4 hour exam. Rather than teaching you how cases and concepts are applied in the real world, this book teaches you how cases and concepts need to be applied in the “unreal” world of law school exams. This is the book to read after you have spent the semester working on law review (Or was it clinic? Or client counseling competitions? Or Kundalini yoga? Or shape note singing?) instead of Business Associations. As Camus (and Noreen Vanderslice) might counsel, “Don’t be Sisyphus. Buy and read this book.”

Thank you, thank you, thank you. The books in this series are seriously saving me in law school. The plain language and excellent structure make these books worth their weight in gold. These are such a time saver. I’ve even gotten to the point where I skim the chapter BEFORE class (holy crap, I know) and I feel like I can predict what the professor will say next.

Loved this book, it helped me get an A- in unincorporated business entities. Simplifies the main issues being tested on the law school exam. I wish I used this book when I took Corporations. I highly recommend this book!
