Penny Warner has a master's degree in special education and twenty years of experience as a child development instructor at Diablo Valley College and Chabot College in California. She is also the author of over thirty books for parents and children, including: 365 Baby Care Tips, Toilet Training without Tears or Trauma, Preschooler Play & Learn, Kids Party Games & Activities, and 365 Toddler Tips. She lives in California and has two grown children.

I like this book a lot. It has great ideas for songs, playtime, and games. It's really nice to have a book like this on hand, especially if you're a tired new parent and you need to think of great new activities.

Okay book. Has some great activities but could be more age specific. Vague.

I bought this for my 8-year-old granddaughter for ideas of what she could do with her baby brother.

This was a great tool for me with my first child. I had no experience and it was challenging to find enough activities that fit his age. Very helpful!

Great ideas to help with babies and toddlers. Very creative. I work with babies and I'm always looking for more ideas. Very helpful

Parents should read it during pregnancy

Great book

Love it! Plenty of good ideas to play, especially when someone comes to babysit, I can tell them to look in the book which activity I know my son prefers.
