Route 66 In Chicago (View-Master Reel)

Synopsis

The most famous highway in America starts in the center of Chicago. For over 2,400 miles it winds west through little towns, plains, mountains and deserts, all the way to L.A., California. The first few miles of the journey zigzag down busy streets of the city. Here and there are old roadside businesses dating from the picturesque days of auto tourism along the Mother Road. Read the story of this historic travel route in the enclosed booklet, and see the sights along the way in three-dimensional photographs.

Customer Reviews

I was hesitant to purchase this reel because I wasn't sure if it was going to be worth the money. However, I decided to treat myself figuring I only had $10 to lose. I am soooo glad I did. All of the views on the reel are fun and interesting to see and he did a nice job on the included pamphlet. It's a wonderful addition to my meager VM collection and I will be proud to show it off. If you are interested in VM even just a little bit, do yourself a favor and buy all three reels. They are even eligible for the free Super Saver shipping for orders over $25.

These amazing 3D images, along with the well-written pamphlet insert, start you off on an amazing virtual tour of the Mother Road. The images harken back to the heyday of both the road and the viewmaster travel reel and yet these are modern images showing both sides of the highway today: vibrant and alive/derelict and bypassed. Fans of roadside America, Chicago, and Route 66 will be well-pleased by this amazing collection of images.
