Customer Reviews

Judith Turner's passion for clothing alterations began in the 1990s when her friend gave her a job in her fabric shop. She soon found that she had a natural gift at altering clothes and in 1996 she branched out and opened up her first shop with nothing except this skill. It was soon after opening her shop that Judith began writing manuals on clothing alterations for the staff. She wanted everyone to be altering the clothes in the same way, and also wanted to give her customers a 100% guarantee that the garment would be altered to theirÃ A satisfaction.

Has everything you'd need to make alterations for a business and personally.

It has definitely been worth the wait. I've wanted this book for months, but it just wasn't available. I was finally able to order it about six weeks ago and received it yesterday. I couldn't be happier with it. In the years to come I'll be so thankful to have it. Thank you, !!!

Great book, wonderfully illustrated.

I looked for a book to help with alterations for over a year. This is by far the best book out there. I am so happy Judith took the time to write all of this treasure of information down. This book is great for beginners and intermediates. I have been sewing for 20+ years and it has been a pleasure reading this book. I am truly excited by this book. She is brilliant in her approach to fixing ready to wear.

The lady loves the book. Good enough for me!
