Build Your Own Mini-Ramp!

Synopsis

A step-by-step guide to building a skateboarding mini-ramp for about $300! With full color illustrations and easy to follow instructions, anyone can build their own ramp in a day with only a few basic tools, even those with few carpentry skills! The author has worked as an engineer and a carpenter and has used that expertise to design an easy to build and super tough ramp that has proven to work! The design guidelines included can also be used to inspire custom designs!
