Jennie Lynn's book is a beautiful message about self-love and healing from within and through your own inner-wisdom. She leads the reader through her own examples and struggles and empowers them, through her lessons, to live the life they love and are deserving of. This is a must read!

Jennie gives us step by step guide to achieving what most of the people are afraid of. I truly enjoy the lessons and challenges. Can you imagine if all of your dreams and desires come true? Our life is basically designed by our habits. There are no bad habits just constructive and destructive. Ones take you closer to your desires and other take you further from what you dream of. Jennie makes sure to give us simple steps for changing our basic habits and taking us out of our comfort zone. Small changes that have a domino effect open the path to a number of positive changes and actions leading us toward the things we often thought are reserved for somebody else. There is no one else but us, read and do the steps and your entire world will turn around to ensure your success. Jennie is fantastic, systematic and committed to success. Her persistence should be our guide for achieving anything we desire in life. My gratitude for making this book available to the world.

Magnetic Love is a magical guide to creating the life of your dreams. Enhanced by the author's conversational style and courage in sharing her own spiritual journey, it is anchored in real results and timeless truths. I've been a student of spiritual laws and an avid reader of personal development books for years. Yet Jennie Lynn's Magnetic Love resonated with me in new and unexpected ways. I felt as if I developed a relationship with the author because I can relate to so much of her story, from her frustration with doing everything right (or so she thought), only to receive the opposite of what she wanted, to learning how to truly and deeply love herself and appreciate her body. In easy-to-understand language, Jennie explains the importance of recognizing and shifting paradigms (stubborn belief systems embedded in our subconscious minds) and becoming the vibration of the things and people we want to attract. Throughout, she shares practical exercises and online resources she has developed to help her readers transform their lives. Each chapter ends with a place for handwritten notes, along with prompts to help you glean your most important lessons and insights from what you have just read. As suggested by the title, the book features plenty of practical wisdom, based on spiritual laws, to help you find your Soul Mate, while making a clear distinction between romantic love and other various forms of this multi-dimensional energy -- the most powerful force in the world. If you're seeking to understand and apply the Laws of the Universe to arrive at a true understanding of you who really are, I highly recommend Magnetic Love (and Jennie Lynn) as your partner in manifesting all that you desire! In full disclosure, I received a review copy from the author and interviewed her about her book on Writestream Radio.

Magnetic Love it's truly an amazing and powerful book. I not only recommend it, but it is my sincere hope that it will impact your life the way it has impacted mine. With that said, I would like to share my story...you will love the end!! Two weeks ago I decided to get a tattoo in my arm. For the first couple of days everything was good, but all of the sudden around the fourth day I noticed it was getting really red and it was itching more than it was suppose to. I started to get concern because I knew it was not normal and I went to the hospital. The doctor told me that I had probably gotten an allergic reaction to the ink. He gave me three shots and prescribed me antibiotics and a medication for the allergy. As the days passed, the arm kept getting worse. To make long story short, last week

I went to the hospital three times and the last doctor I saw told me I had a really bad infection and that the medication I was taking for my autoimmune disease rheumatoid arthritis didn't help the cause because what it does is that it suppresses the immune system and lowers the blood cells that help your body fight infections. This was last Friday. On Saturday 7/16/17, I got a pre-release copy of Magnetic Love. That afternoon the weather was really nice so I decide to go outside to read her book. Little did I know I was going to have one of the most beautiful experiences in my life. I felt really inspired as I was reading the first chapter titled What is love?... but when I got to the second chapter about her story of healing that's when I not only was inspired but felt related to her in the sense that I like her was diagnosed with an auto immune disease called Rheumatoid Arthritis. As I was reading, I realized that all this time I had been thinking about how bad I was or it looked. Just worrying about the illness. I told myself that I needed to stop worrying and start loving myself and my body. I also realize that I had the power to heal myself, my body, my mind and my spirit. So, I started reading Jennie's healing affirmations at the end of the chapter and I started to feel my body healing from inside. It's hard to explain, somehow I knew I was healing ... I felt it! My arm still looked the same on the outside, but inside I felt I was healing, and I felt joy, peace and full of energy! So I started to just be grateful and thank God. My father called me later that evening to see how I was, and I could just tell him " Dad my arm looks the same, but I feel I'm healing" " I know is getting better"... somehow I was so certain that I was healing. The next day my arm looked so much better, the difference was like night and day. It was breakthrough. Everything I have been studying really works. The power of your subconscious mind. This was just one of so many powerful lessons Jennie guided me too and I am forever grateful!
