Many Voices, One Faith II - Islamic Fiction Stories

Synopsis

Today's world is indeed a global village. The wonders of technology in communication and travel have cut through the distant miles which used to separate us from one another. Many Voices, One Faith II - Islamic Fiction Stories is a literary example of the small world we are all a part of, showcasing the writing and artistic talents of the Islamic Writers Alliance membership which reach around the globe in their respective residences and origins. From the cover design of one of the beautiful names of Allah, beautiful and original interior illustrations, and the unique story-telling talent of the authors, their original stories combine the diversity and flavor of their backgrounds. You will find almost every region of the world exemplified in these wonderful Islamic fiction stories which skillfully and creatively present the importance of Islam in our daily lives. Many Voices, One Faith II -Islamic Fiction Stories is an enjoyable, entertaining, and enlightening read for non-Muslims as well as Muslims. Many Voices, One Faith II -Islamic Fiction Stories is the ultimate in the variety of selections written by some of the best Islamic Fiction authors in today's fiction book markets.

I have enjoyed reading this book ,it has given a walk through ,many lives and different situations. Sometimes I cried, others times I laughed. I read some stories to my children and others I felt a connection too.Some I will never forget, the words will remain engraved in my heart. These are stories written by Muslims but are good for non Muslim as well. A good book allows the reader to feel each word and be affected by those words . I felt each and everyone ,happiness,pain and daily struggles of live and a love of faith. Thank You.

I really liked this book. It is a collection of stories with a wide variety of topics. they were moving, heartbreaking, funny and honest. This is one for the home library.
