Customer Reviews

Excellent travel book full of useful information about what to do in Oregon. Includes where to eat, stay, what to visit and modes of available transportation.

Great travel reference.

The latest edition of MOON OREGON is fully alive with color, as well as describing every area of Oregon, from the major urban hub of Portland to the liberal university cities of Eugene and Corvallis to the cattle-ranching wilderness east of the Cascades to the fruit and vegetable farming and seafood production that takes place throughout the state. There's lots of info about sightseeing, dining, recreation, shopping, and nightlife. Overall, regardless of whether you're planning a trip there, MOON OREGON is a book which you're sure to enjoy
