Since cycling solo from Amsterdam to Spain over a decade ago, Melanie Chambers has been struck with wanderlust. After graduation from Ryerson University's journalism program in 2001, she's been writing about her travels across the globe, often accompanied by her bike. Now the owner of a rambunctious Labrador Retriever, she's taken to hiking.

I purchased this book when we were taking a trip to Niagra Falls. It was very helpful and useful on our vacation.

I nearly returned this book; it has a few morsels but in general I found the AAA guide to the region to be far more comprehensive, and free if you are a member. What I hoped for were candid reviews of hotels and restaurants, but see very little in that regard.

I'm still waiting to get this book that I was told over 2 weeks ago was in the mail. I think it's coming by Pony Express. Maybe it will be here by the time I go on my trip. They sure got paid though.
