This book was perfect for my children who wanted something they could basically sight read to play in an impromptu concert for a retirement community over the holiday. It is full of traditional Christmas Carols that many in that community would know very well. I would place it at intermediate. It was very easy for my children who play in advanced high school orchestra and advanced middle school orchestra - they could pretty much play through the book on sight. It is used unaccompanied, which was also nice. Many of the pieces are short, but can be repeated.
