My Walk With Jesus Devotional Bible: 31 Encouraging Devotions For Children Facing Cancer And Challenging Health Conditions

Synopsis

InÃ 31 full-colorÃ inspirational devotions, My Walk With Jesus Devotional Bible will bring encouraging hope to children facing cancer and other challenging health conditions. Each devotion is written from the heart of a child-- applying promises from Jesus in scripture, to help them through the hard times in their lives. Children will also learn to see Jesus in a new way, as their very best friend. He loves them more than they could ever imagine, and He will carry them through every challenge they face. This book will remind children how Jesus is walking with them, and will never, ever leave their side... Below is an excerpt from MWWJDB "The hard things in life we have to go through are kind of like these puzzle pieces. We can only see a little tiny piece of our life at a time, but our Heavenly Father sees ALL of it, all put together" - Devotion 3, Pieces of His Plan "Jenna's written words will surely bring healing and touch hearts, as they reach with the love of Jesus. Thank you, Jenna, for your wonderful book." -Bruce Marchiano Actor, Best-Selling Author, Producer, and Founder of Marchiano Ministries

Jenna Sue Bennett is blessed with a desire in her heart to write. With her desire being fueled daily by reading, she reached her goal of reading over 1,000 books by her tenth birthday. At the age of ten, she began writing My Walk With Jesus Devotional Bible, completing it before her eighteenth birthday. She will be using the profits from this book to share it with children around the world. It is a dream come true for her to use her writing gift to share Jesus' love with children facing cancer, and their families. In her free time, Jenna enjoys spending time with her loving parents, and her sweet and silly little brother, Noah. Boating, camping, fishing, and taking long sunset walks are some of her favorite ways to spend time with her family. Jenna has also published another children's book titled "My Little Dog, Fifi". It was written when she was seven, and is available through .com. Jenna hopes to write many more books to help children know how the love of Jesus is with them always. She is also writing a biblical fiction novel based on the lives of Jesus' disciples. She prays that all of her writing projects will bring many people closer to God!

This is a really great book for children. It is very easy to read and understand and the pictures are incredible. It is a heart touching book, I have really enjoyed and hope to share it with many of my friends and family

Such an amazing book! It will be a blessing to all who read it!

My Walk With Jesus Devotional Bible is a tremendous book for children and adults. The way each devotion is told by a child talking as if to a new friend makes each page so personal. Their talks are so innocent, yet so real. The pictures of the children and their pets or objects are adorable. Kids will relate to that. One can never say enough about God's and Jesus' love for each of us, and Jenna emphasizes that continuously, which is good. I'm sure this book will reinforce to children (and adults) that they are never alone, I and that they are always being held in Jesus' loving arms.

I cannot say enough wonderful things about this devotional! It is definitely intended for very young children. The author speaks simply and from the heart, and children with cancer or other difficult health issues can really identify with the "author" of each devotion. They could be real kids--with real fears, real disappointments, and real hopes. Which is sure to give kids in similar situations (and the adults love them love them) a real reminder that God is always with them! The scriptural content was varied & easy to understand, and is a great reference tool for anyone whose worries need reassuring. (I was honored to receive a copy of this book from the author in exchange for my honest review.)

What a powerful and heartfelt book for children who are living with cancer and other life threatening illnesses. It spoke to me and I'm not a child and I don't have cancer, so that should say something!

Jenna Sue Bennet does an amazing job of writing the devotionals through a child's perspective. I highly recommend this book to everyone who knows a child who is battling with a severe illness; it will encourage them to lean on and trust in their Heavenly Father.

Absolutely amazing devotional! It's pretty rare that I ever do reviews for devotionals. However, this devotional that is dedicated to kids in chronic conditions is a Godsend and must be read by every kid faced with the situations described as well as adults alike as it makes a very profound mark in our lives spiritually, emotionally, and mentally. As for me, an adult, I was barely getting started on Devotion 3 when I was already moved with compassion in the love these kids have for Jesus.

WARNING!!! MAJOR TEAR JERKER!!!!!! HIGHLY RECOMMEND this book as this book has left an indelible impression upon me as I'm sure it will do the same for you! Purchase this book; not just for the kids, but for yourself too as ironically enough, it will minister to you in a very profound way as it already has to me!

Such a great book for children. Wonderfully written! Can't wait to read more from Ms. Bennett. She has a talent for reaching out to children and engaging them with her gift of writing. Blessings, Jean Davis and Amanda Gregory

We were given this book last night after meeting and talking with Jenna Sue and her family. My husband & I have been inspired to purchase some to be placed in Brenner Children's Hospital in Winston-Salem. We are thankful for the opportunity to be partakers in your ministry and labor of love. Thank you, Jenna Sue for being used of God.
