Customer Reviews

A Florida resident must have for our day and weekend in-state adventures, especially given all of the dead zones in cell coverage that plague ATT and Sprint customers throughout the state. We keep this in the car for when we lose 4G and Google Maps connectivity.

The map was easy to read and very helpful planning our next trip.

Good map. No complaints except it is difficult to refold (aren't they all?) and the paper is a little on the thin side. But otherwise it is a great map.

used the map in Florida on my recent trip and it helped better than my GPS.

Nice map. Don't like looking at an Atlas all the time.

Very pleased. My wife loves it because she can actually see areas of interest A lot more practical than looking at maps online very useful for an upcoming trip

It's nice to have maps on your phone but having a complete map of a state in your hand as you can with Rand McNally and not have to scroll everywhere is priceless - seeing the whole picture in one view gives a much better perspective of the entire area - we prefer Rand McNally to any other maps.
