Come to the southernmost point of the continental United States, where Tom and Therisa Stack show you the most extravagant colors under the sun, and under the water. The unique tourist venues and resident life on the Keys are perfectly matched by the diversity of the natural environment.

Respected as one of the world's most widely published photography couples, Tom and Therisa Stack are full-time professionals with more than thirty-five years of experience. From their home base in Key Largo, they journey on frequent assignments throughout the Florida Keys and Caribbean. They work closely with National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration and Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary researchers who are actively involved with the preservation of the fragile coral reef and mangrove ecosystems.
