Founded in 1915 as the Cartographic Group, the first division of National Geographic, National Geographic Maps has been responsible for illustrating the world around us through the art and science of mapmaking. Nice map.

I was in Panama and looking for a good map around San Felix. The map I purchased for $7 from the super-market in San Felix was quite disappointing and not detail enough. This map I've got from you was published by the National Geographic and the best map I have ever had. This map is all you need to have in Panama. NKK

The cart works great and is very compact when folded for storing on my sail boat where where space is a premium! It rolls very smoothly and even rides the bumps well. The only draw back is the smell of solvent it has, and I think it is the smell of the tire material, but it gets less intense with time. So, wear gloves and give it a good bath with soap when you first get it and leave it out side for as long as possible.

Bought two of these beautiful maps. While traveling, left one behind at a great hotel on Boca Tel Toro because they were so darn nice to us. First time there, so the map was handy. Public transportation is so easy in Panama, that the map served as a reference point as we made our way around the country. Good travel ideas on the map as well.

Plastic coated map of panama protected against the elements was clear and easily understood. It certainly enhanced land based tour of panama whose geography is so interesting. Thirteen family members took tour including Panama City, Gamboa rain forest, and the Playa Blanca, but starred the Canal. Map allowed us all to keep our bearings and to enjoy our experience.

Great detailed map of Panama, perfect if you plan on driving in Panama. Highly recommend this map. Covers all of the smaller cities with the major roads listed.

not what I expected and not usable for my purpose.

The map that I hesitantly ordered far exceeded my expectations! I was traveling with a group of more than 20 people and almost everyone had to look at the map and fold and refold it. It held up to the wear and tear like a champ! The occasional spill didn't bother it. The smaller road and communities were easily seen. The information about the country, the people who live there, and the travel info were a great help. Several want their own before we travel again. Was well worth the price.
