Ã Â This is a fantastic book! a must have for any dog lover! Amanda Neel is a great artist who has created some of the cutest realistic puppies! I have a few of her books, and love them all! There are many different breeds represented, some with their mommas, some on their own. All very beautifully illustrated in wonderful scenes including farms, by the lake, on a dock, under the Christmas tree and so much more. The designs are all realistic puppies/dogs in realistic scenes. Beautifully set to help you create some wonderful frame worthy pictures. They are detailed but not in a way that you will be overwhelmed with tiny areas to color. Perfect for both the advanced and novice colorist. There are 30 full pages to colour, along with a colorable cover page. Every design is framed with a single line and none go into the binding. Each page is single sided making it great for you to take a page out and frame your masterpiece when you're done. Paper is medium weight, white, typical of Createspace published books. Markers will bleed through, I highly recommend putting some sheets of paper in between the pages to prevent bleed through. Gel pens can leave some shadowing. Coloured pencils work very well, both oil and wax based. This is by far my favorite coloring book with a dog theme. If you like dogs I highly recommend it. Would make the perfect gift for any dog lover. I've included a video flip through for you to see the pages in the book.

Received my books today. They are going to be such fun. I love that they are perforated and can be easily removed from the book. I am left handed and anyone who knows how difficult it is to deal with the humps and rings in books and spiral notebooks.

Love the puppy book. I had fun coloring it. There is a lot of detail if you want to stay true to the colors. I also have the cat book. I am a cat person. I love everything about it.

Love it. Very nice pictures.
