Street Magic: Street Tricks, Sleight Of Hand And Illusion

Synopsis

It's magic—close-up, in-your-face magic, as taught by Britain's leading comedy conjurer. Zenon presents all his great tricks and illusions in an accessible jargon-free format that's well illustrated with easy-to-follow diagrams. There's no skimping on important detail, and the book begins with the simplest tricks, so beginners can focus on entertainment rather than sleight-of-hand. As skills grow, novices can progress to card counting, predictions, graphology, and a heart-stopping routine where the dead seem to appear. Also includes: "One for the Road," possibly the world's very best trick!

Paul Zenon, the original Fun Loving Criminal, is the UK's leading comedy magician, with dozens of TV credits to his name. Paul has appeared in around 30 countries and in every conceivable location, from the Tropicana Hotel in Las Vegas to the jungles of Belize. Great book but needs to be read very slow
