Customer Reviews

The climax came out of nowhere, it seemed to me, compared to her better constructed stories, but this is still a fun addition to this cozy genre series. Glad of the wedding and various other developments in local lives. Looking forward to some new characters because the feisty grandma is getting on my nerves. Brava for a fun afternoon's relaxation.

I really enjoy this series! Light reading. I like small beach towns where you have so many different characters that fit into the story perfectly. The story line is great and the mystery in each book keeps you interested and moves at a steady pace. Looking forward to the next one!

Loved this latest book! Love the style of how she writes her books! Wonderful series! I had no clue as to who the suspect was. So happy she and James finally got married. I hope she continues the series...after the wedding...Great and fun book to read!

I have read the whole series and have enjoyed them but I definitely do not like all the grammar errors. Apparently no one takes the time to proof read the novel before it's published. All the errors detract from the book.

again, a fun read...no offensive language and the "corpse" appears in middle of story so you aren't tortured with all the different scenarios and suspects. I've reached the end of series so will have to branch out to other similar reads

I love these books. I hope the author writes more. You can really get involved in the characters feelings and with what is going on in their lives. The events in the books are well thought out. It is very hard to guess who the killer is in this book. The story does not give anything away.

As always, the people of Ravenwood make magic happen, although could use better editing, lots of typos throughout, as well as previous ones, and I'm available

A good story but a little short. The characters in the series are great. This book has less on the story line but still good. I would recommend this book.
